

INTERVIEWS

 In-depth discussions with leaders, thinkers, and practitioners working at the intersection of education organizing, engagement, and equity.

In this section, Organizing Engagement features interviews with leaders, thinkers, and practitioners across the United States who share their journeys, lessons, and wisdom in their own words. Our interviews are a forum for candid, in-depth discussion, and our interviewees represent a diversity of cultural and professional perspectives.